

2 error-filled textbooks still in use after pullout

PHILIPPINE DAILY
INQUIRER
BALANCED NEWS, FEARLESS VIEWS

Tuesday, October 12, 2004

Garcia: $100,000 loans from friends

PORTRAIT of General Garcia

Probe reaches AFP chief

Solon cites possible violation of Anti-Money Laundering Law

By Cynthia D. Balana

Graft extends to bond paper and paper clips

SuperFerry 14 bombing solved—GMA

Lawyer in Ecleo killing shot dead in her home

'Superman' Reeve dies at 52

CHRISTOPHER Reeve flies in the 1978 "Superman" movie.

Second FRONT PAGE

COA audit uncovers errors in DA's books

Foreign investors 'shocked' by GMA admission of crisis

JAPANESE ENVOY LEAVING

Cardinal Sin suffers heart attack

Winston charged with graft for stock trading practices

Asistio: Erap didn't force Chavit to do anything

BEAUTIES ANY WAY YOU LOOK AT IT

Woman bombing suspect nabbed

Jaloslos won't return to prison

Malaysia protests sultan's claim

Lawyer in Ecleo killing shot dead

Offer of reward

Daily ritual

Sketch of gunman

Not Ecleo

SuperFerry 14 . . .

Extortion letter

Explosives training

2 error-filled science textbooks . . .

Misleading the public

Abad's promise

Diwa's response

'Superman' star Christopher Reeve dies at 52

Vow to walk again

Stage debut

The WORLD

Disputes force delay in Afghan vote count

AFGHAN election staff count ballots at a UN office at Herat airport, Oct. 11.

KABUL—Afghan officials delayed counting ballots in a historic presidential election on Monday to deal with complaints of fraud, but several of the candidates appeared to be pulling back from an initial decision to boycott the vote.

... Reuters

Cambodia may elect new king

... AFP

Derrida, French father of deconstructionism, 74

DERRIDA in Dec. 2, 1981 photo

Sadr militia begins handing in arms under disarmament deal

'Homosexual' Anwar is finished, Mahathir says

MAHATHIR

Civet named SARS source

Entertainment Metro

Saving Mother Earth with their beauty

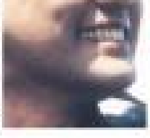

Patti, Martin bring their US show to Manila in January

Russian-born tycoon's party tops Lithuania poll, bids for key role

WEARING masks, South Korean sex workers take part in a rally demanding state recognition of their occupation in Pyeongtaek, south of Seoul Oct 11. AFP

S. Korea sex workers rally

Patti, Martin bring...

From page A7

years, Patti is considered one of the most consistent big sellers in the Philippines. "People in Manila know all my songs and that makes me feel like my music has truly touched them," she said.

Martin professes to being a huge Patti Austin fan. "Never in my wildest dreams did it occur to me that I would be doing a back-to-back tour with her," he said. "It's nakakakilig!"

'Late @ Night'

He recalled that the one and only time the two of them met was at the set of his late-night talk show on ABS-CBN, when Patti did a promotional guest appearance in 1997. "When she guested on 'Martin Late @ Night,' she had just gotten off the plane so she was exhausted," said Martin. "But after a couple of questions about our common hometown in the Bay area, she kicked her shoes off and lay on the couch. It was smooth sailing all the way!

"She is a funny, free-spirited soul with a great sense of humor, and boy, can she sing!"

Patti remembers that very same moment with equal relish. "Martin is such a friendly, engaging person," she said. "He welcomed me on his show as if we were long time friends and that made me feel so good!"

Martin, still piping hot from his very successful headlining stint in Las Vegas, had hoped "that Patti and I can help each other when our worlds come together, joined by a song or two."

Patti herself was thrilled about the possibilities of this unique experience. "It is always so wonderful to engage the music of another culture," she said. "I have sung in different languages in the past and I have always found it both challenging and rewarding. Love songs are the most fun because the emotions are so beautiful in any language."

All-American

The two artists were backed by an all-American band that was led by Manila-based musical director Lorrie Ilustre.

Filipinos are in for a treat when Patti Austin and Martin Nievera bring their show to the Philippines early next year. Already scheduled is a performance at the Araneta Coliseum on Saturday, Jan. 29, 2005. They will be at the Waterfront Cebu City Hotel a day earlier, on Jan. 28.

Tickets are now available and reservations are being accepted. A 10-percent discount is being offered to early birds only until the end of October.

For ticket reservation, call Ticketnet at 911-5555. For ticket inquiries, call Maxi-Media International at 551-7777.

PHILIPPINE DAILY INQUIRER

OPINION

Unmasking AFP

Editorial

[illegible]

Terror vs terror

Foreign Comment

[illegible]

Too late, too late?

Viewpoint

Juan L. Mercado

[illegible]

Wrong turn

There's the Rub

Conrado de Quiros

[illegible]

Good moves

POLITICAL TIDBITS

Belinda Olivares-Cunanan

A life of bravery and dedication

AT LARGE

Rina Jimenez-David

Readers react

SENSE AND SENSIBILITY

Churchgoers

YOUNG BLOOD

Symbol of disrespect?

Unwelcome in Chinatown

GSIS' P35.6-billion revenue

Senators' act argues for Senate's abolition

The teachers' children

Across the NATION

BEDLAM

Clark defends monopoly of water supply inside ex-US military airbase

NPA threat vs dam growing, say cops

Capiz folk to hold 'aswang' feast to rid province of haunting image

Rebs counter Army claim on leadership vacuum

Trader says he didn't pay ransom for his freedom

PACIFICADOR FATE HANGS

Antique court to decide today on 18-yr-old Javier slay case

Garcia a no-show at House hearing

By Cynthia D. Balana, Christine O. Avendaño and Christian V. Esguerra

IN THE KNOW

AFP comptroller's job

Ramiscal trip to US blocked

Garcia: $100,000 loans from friends

Probe reaches AFP chief of staff

Graft extends to bond paper and paper clips

Veggie trucks test Metro food lanes

GONE FISHING

5 rob suspects shot dead

Raps filed vs 4 Manila execs

Matillano should not be an exception

ON TARGET

Ramon Tulfo

Prayer room to rise in San Juan mall

METRO

MUSLIM 'MUSSALAH' IN GREENHILLS

Prayer room to rise in San Juan mall

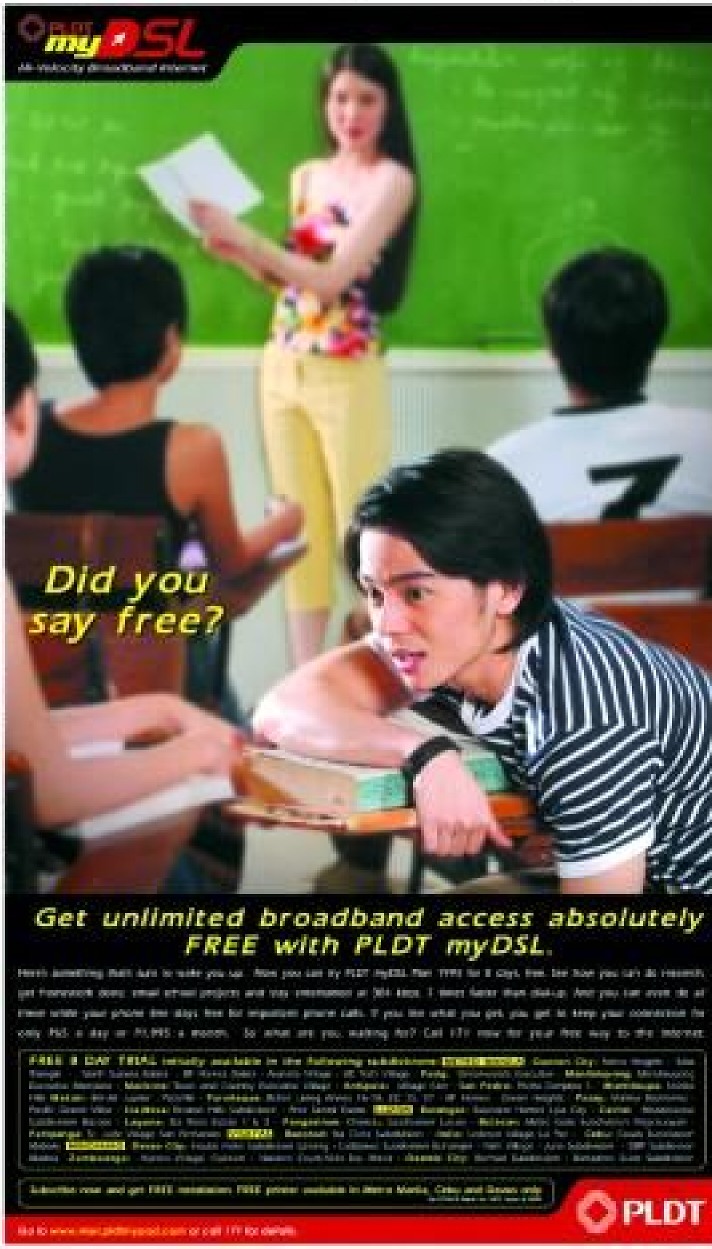

SPORTS

41 sports but only 388 golds

Malaysia, Thailand foot the bill

President's exhortation

SEA Games members solid behind 2005 hosts

Gonzalez denies favorable decision on Asi & Co.

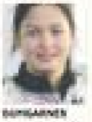

By Philip C. Tubeza

Red Bull, Shell eye first win

SPORTSWATCH

Bumgarner, Stockinger halt Guidiolli

BUMGARNER

Gabi decisions tough Thai fighter

Santillan gains in latest WBC ratings

Arevalo, Guttap gain Vigan tennis finals

Rivera, King bowl perfect 300 in Jakarta

SEA Games members . . .

Yakult 10 Miler stakes P180,000

Championship Day caps Philtobo race carnival

Weeding, walking

SPECTATOR

Al S. Mendoza

Unstoppable Aguilar rules Bacolod S'cross

Crocker sinks mark

Stolz cops first title

Newmann tops Asahi Open

Toyota Otis five boosts stock

ENTERTAINMENT

Audience all shook up as Ogie sings 'You Raise Me Up'

By Nini Valera

[illegible]

OGIE Alcasid says the tremor actually made the people clap louder.

'Aye, it's Superman!'

NEW YORK—Despite his theater credits and work on television, Christopher Reeve is best known as the hero of the "Superman" films.

[illegible]

CAPED CRUSADER. [illegible]

[illegible]

American 'Idol' needed permits

JASMINE Trias, shown endorsing McDonald's, had to apply for three working permits.

'Aye, it's...

Looking for boys from the band

PHILIPPINE DAILY INQUIRER

BUSINESS

T-bill rates rise on inflation fears

BUSINESS

Gas, diesel, kerosene prices raised anew

Steel tariff hike seen to raise ₱5B in gov't revenue

Gov't needs ₱300B to pursue MTDP

MRT-7 proponent to embark on $500-M property venture

DOTC seeks $100M in ADB loan

Fee pull power

BREAKTIME

Conrado R. Banal III

RP firms rake in $3M in Dubai furniture expo

By Abigail L. Ho

GSIS seen to retain SMC seat for now

By Elizabeth L. Sanchez

Noball prize won by a eunuch

Mr. Bearbull

IMF expects export growth to slow down to 6.7% in 2005

CAP plans capital hike to ₱6.2B

MPC considers Nenaco delisting

Stocks slump on impact of surging oil prices

T-bill rates . . .

PARTYING in Hong Kong /C2

Cruising to fitness and well-being

IMAGINE yourself on a cruise ship. What's the image that comes to mind? Do you picture yourself stretched out on a deck chair reading a gripping thriller or downing glass after glass of tropical drinks and munching on chips while gazing at the deep-blue sea? Or perhaps you see yourself enjoying platefuls of pasta, calorie-rich cakes and other fattening morsels.

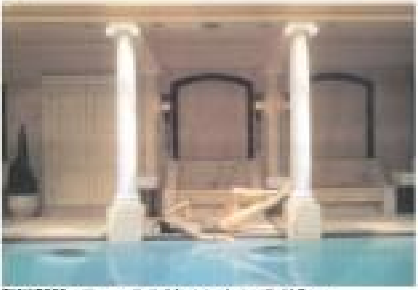

[illegible]

> Dove gives some women a truly unique encounter with sun, sea and sky via meditation and fitness workouts

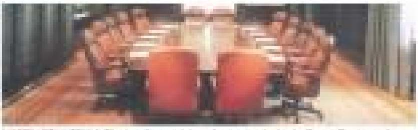

Floating yoga

[illegible]

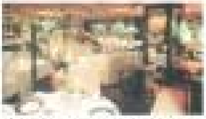

A birthday celebration in Hong Kong

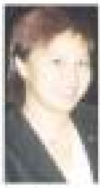

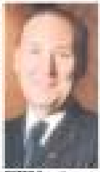

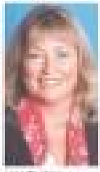

WITHOUT BATTING AN EYELASH

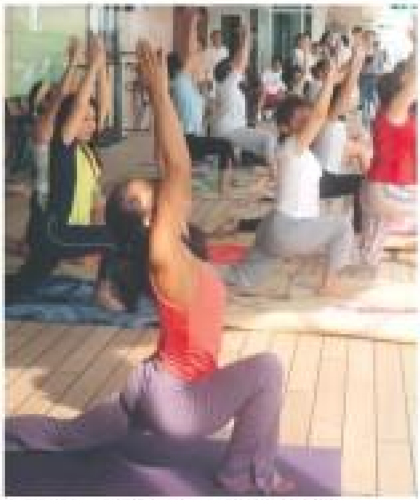

Maurice Arcache

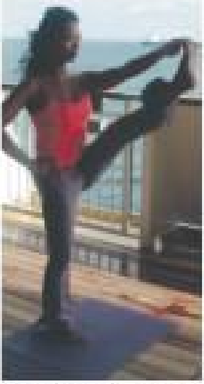

Cruising to fitness and well-being

[illegible]

Breathing lessons

[illegible]

SO WHAT COKE ARE YOU, REALLY?

[illegible]

THE FILIPINO shamans /C5

LifeStyle

Healing body and soul to cure a disease

Inside Out

Shamanism in the Philippines

INNER AWARENESS

Jaime T. Licauco

Filipinos heal with the help of spirit guides, often identified as Christian saints, if not Jesus Christ himself

Osteoporosis : Getting shorter as you get older?

Gym swap promo

CLARK Hatch Fitness Center and Spa will hold a special event called "Boxing Day" on Oct. 16 at 1 p.m.

Horseback riding club in Lucena City

THE SOUTH Waters Marina Country Club and Farm's horseback riding grounds in Lucena City will be unveiled today. Horseback riders and enthusiasts are in for a day of fun and excitement as the event showcases the latest trends in developing an ideal, eco-friendly and sustainable country club.

Healing body and soul to cure a disease

Take Charge Doc!

Dr. Nicky S. Montoya

How much food should an infant eat?

PIMS Enrolls to MEDICard HMO Plan

